Overview

Alejandro Trejos Gómez has broad experience in consultancy for companies operating in Central America and Panama. His practice focuses on monitoring and securing proprietary confidential information and drafting non-disclosure agreements and non-compete agreements. With substantial knowledge of computer science and intellectual property, he is able to assist clients in protecting their trade secrets and other sensitive business information.

Alejandro has taught labor law at the University of Costa Rica and is a frequent contributor for the Elempleo.com Section of Periódico La Nación. He regularly conducts public and in-house seminars and training programs on labor related subjects of national relevance.
