Overview

Anton Stewart focuses his practice on trade secrets and noncompetition disputes. He assists businesses from a broad spectrum of industries with protecting their most valuable nontangible assets through a variety of contractual, legal, and judicial means. Anton also has substantial experience in all aspects of complex commercial and general litigation in state and federal courts.

Prior to joining Littler, Anton practiced with an international law firm in Dallas where he represented global insurance carriers and their insureds in all stages of state and federal litigation.
