Overview

Fabienne Raepsaet (Liège, 1974) practices individual and collective employment law and assists clients with employment contracts, false self-employment, termination of the employment relationship, restructuring, employee representatives, collective disputes, discrimination and harassment at work. Fabienne is also renowned for her knowledge of privacy and data protection issues (GDPR), civil service law and whistleblowing.

As author of a number of publications in these areas, Fabienne is also regularly invited as a speaker at seminars.

Fabienne worked for other Belgium law firms before joining Reliance | Littler as a Partner.

After obtaining her law degree from the ULg (1999), Fabienne obtained an additional diploma in social law from the ULg with part of the program at the KUL (2000) and a Master's degree in European Integration and Development from the VUB (2005). Fabienne has been a member of the Brussels Bar since 2000.

In 2018, she obtained the Data Privacy Officer (DPO) certificate from the Data Protection Institute. She also obtained in 2023 a certificate in mediation from PMR-Europe.
